

SUMMER CAMP 2014

Friday 4th July 2014 – Sunday 6th July 2014

Etiquette and rules

- Moo Do should be observed and maintained throughout the weekend, including during the evening BBQ.
- During training; KyoSa Creaser will be the Child Welfare Officer; she will contact parents in the event of student illness or injury during the event.
- Outside of the seminars, all parents are responsible for their children unless agreed by the Regional Instructor and is brought to KyoSa Creaser's awareness. Parents are also responsible for transport of their child to and from the training location, unless children are travelling alone therefore should report to Mrs Creaser.
- Any and all BBQs should be made at an elevated position off the grass to protect it. Use of bricks and breeze blocks are advised.
- Noise: we are using a public campsite so we must be respectful to other users. "Lights out" will be no later than 11:00pm each night please. Any conversations after this point should be as quiet as possible.

Program

Friday 4th July

Arrivals and tent set up.

Saturday 5th July

Day one = "Good basics make good Black belts!"

am

9:00am: Formal opening of Seminars and orientation,

10:00am – 11:00am: An analytical view of Gi Cho Soo Gi,

11:00am – 12:00pm: An analytical view of Gi Cho Jok Gi

pm

2:30pm – 5:00pm: Extra curricular training with Master White.

Sunday 6th July

Day two = "Good depth of knowledge make good Masters!"

10:00am – 11:am: Increasing knowledge of applications.

11:00am – 12:00pm: Increasing depth of knowledge of YuDanJa

Pack down and departures by 12pm midday.